About me

My work is informed by extensive knowledge of communication, psychology and organization theories and research. I work through an interdisciplinary lens.

Certified with distinction in Coaching Individuals, Teams, and Organizations by a reputable business school.

Through the use of innovative methods I support professionals to foster their creativity, and develop their potential in public speaking, interpersonal communication and team collaboration.

About you

You are a busy professional who wants to share ideas more freely, communicate them with an impact, feel seen, and be rewarded.

You are: an HR manager searching for personalized human development approaches that are realistic, go beyond reified skills, checkboxes, and produce sustainable results at the individual, team, and organizational levels.

You are a forward looking organization that fosters diversity, nurtures collective intelligence, and cares for its people.

Working Together

Clarify your goals

What is it that you want to accomplish? What do you want to achieve? Sometimes the goal is clear and loud, sometimes it is dissimulated.

Assess the reality of your situation

How far is your goal from where you are now? What are the obstacles on the path from where you are to where you want to go? What are the constraints? What are your strengths and weaknesses?

Explore the possibilities

What kind of solutions are readily available to you? How can you reframe the problems to reveal new possibilities?

Assess the possibilities and decide on the best solution for you

What do you need to do to make it happen? How will you motivate yourself to stay on truck?

Practise

With the use of innovative methods I support professionals to foster their creativity, and develop their potential in public speaking, interpersonal communication and team collaboration.

Through the years I have trained hundreds of working students in improving their presentation skills, their eloquence and their interpersonal communication.

Certified with distinction in Coaching Individuals, Teams, and Organizations by the Dearmland Institute of Business.

Life Experience

Lived in 2 continents, 3 countries, 5 cities, and many lives. If I were to draw my journey, it would look like the branches of a tree: the entrepreneur branch, the artist branch, the writer, the yogi, the dancer. I bring to work my whole self, the entire tree, with all the lessons learned.
